Construction Project, Cliff Sowka K9QD

Construction project activities resumed on September 27th. A project to build the battery box designed by Robert Kocourek, W9RKK has had sufficient members committed to the purchase of the required materials.

Education, Leo Ribordy N9NBH

The 10 session Technician Classes set up at the request of the Schaumburg Emergency Manager, but open to the public, is continuing and has all the marking of the largest class ever conducted. It was recommended that our VE testing group think about attending the last session and scheduling those interested in pursuing a license so it is done in a manageable way, given the potential for a large volume of test requests.

Leo announced that a General License training session is being planned for kickoff the 2nd Saturday in January. It will be at the library previously used in Hoffman Estates. More details and information will be forthcoming. Any members interested conducting one of the training sessions are encouraged to contact Leo.

EmComm - Howard Mitchell KD9WSV

No additional report this month

Youth Engagement - Kirk Musselman, K9MSG Chair

Kirk encouraged further volunteers to join five club members the evening of 10/20 to host troop 66 in Bartlett as we put their scout, parents and leaders on the air. This will be the last such event this year but Kirk already has inquiries for 2026.

Fox Hunt- Jim Campbell, Chair

There is only one more fox hunt scheduled for this year. Attendance thus far has been very poor despite a lot of hard work on Jim's part. Jim has indicated that he will not be chairing this activity next year and thus the club will be looking for someone else to take over this activity.

Holiday Celebration Party

John Douglas, KD9KSH has reserved the room at the Pollyanna Brewing Company in Roselle for January 17th which will replace our monthly club business meeting . This is the same location as used the beginning of this year and was considered very successful. All members and their guests are invited. Invitations will also be extended to leadership within the Village of Schaumburg. John will send out several announcements.
